

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Purpose

This policy defines the University of Mary's stance on academic freedom.

Statement of Policy

The University of Mary is dedicated to the service of truth and the promotion of the common good. Rooted in the rich heritage of the Catholic intellectual tradition stretching over centuries, Catholic universities have long been characterized by commitment to the love of learning and the desire for God. Catholic universities possess a particular mission to pursue the unity of truth in all spheres of knowledge: human, natural, and divine.
